PUBLIC

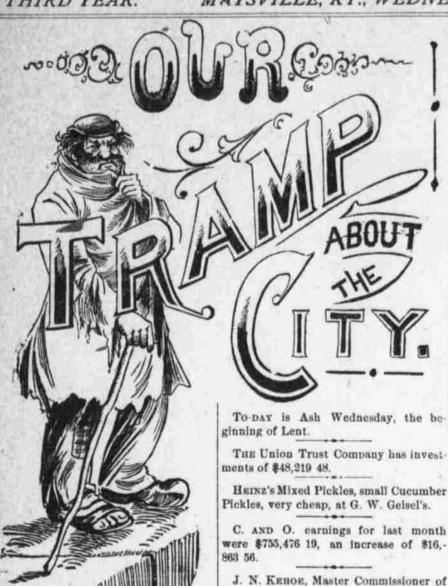

LEDGER

THIRD YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1894.

ONE CENT.

the Circuit Court, has $9.54 09 in his

ALLAN D. COLE, late Master Com-

ISAAC WOODWARD, Circuit Clerk, has received $28 from taxes on law process

LANCASTER Ginghams, 5 cents a yard; best all wool Carpets, 50 cents a yard, at

T. M. PEARCE, County Clerk, has re-mortgages, licenses, &c., since last term.

JOHN HEFLIN and Miss Ella Manion of Lewisburg secured a license yesterday and were married at the home of the

In the Circuit Court the case of Myall

BOR WILSON, alias Warner, was yesterday morning sentenced by Judge Harbe son to two years in the penitentiary for breaking into a C. and O. freight car some

THE well known trotting horse breeder,

W. S. Rogers jr., of Fayette county, took nitric acid and came near losing his life. His little daughter gave him the Wilson Bill which puts leaf on the free

In the County Court yesterday

Miss Ella Knox was qualified as administratrix of the estate of Margaret two named will be given a trial to-day

AT Catlettsburg one Wallace got a

$5,000 judgment against the A. C. and I.

The amount sued for was $30,000. This makes the third suit, each one resulting time ago.

poison by mistake.

horseradish.

Superior Court.

appraisers of the estate.

before Judge Harbeson.

& Shackleford against Philip S. Kemper

Shackleford were dismissed, settled.

the Bee Hive's great clearance sale.

missioner of the Circuit Court, has $10,- inside pocket.

337 23 in his hands.

since last term of Court.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Court yesterday. Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS. White streamer-PAIR; Blue-BAIN OF SNOW: WithBlack above—'twill warmer

If Black's BENEATH-COLDER't will Unless Black's shown-no change

we'll see The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock

Whose face was fair to see, And spoke some words, I am afraid. She misconstrued for me.

Though I swear but once I saw ber, And would hardly know her face, Yet that angel made me law her In a breach of promise case.

And the verdict of the jury. Which I hoped would disagree, Added frenzy to my fury,

For the way they salted me. I just said she was "a honey" And a "gosling"-all in play-But you should have seen the money

That the jury made me pay. I was frisky, just a little, In those days, I must allow.

But discreetly non-committal When I meet a female now. -Nebraska State Journal.

REMEMBER Hopper & Co. move on March 1st. They are now offering goods very low.

WE earnestly request every one to attend the great clearance sale at the Bee been redocketed in the Circuit Court, Hive. See their big ad.

Every house where there are young children should be supplied with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. In croup, it gives immediate relief.

THERE are two things that appear to Knox, deceased. John M. Hunt. John T. have gotten lost in the shuffle-the Co- Bramel and Jacob Miller were appointed lumbus and Maysville Railroad and the Maysville Fuel Gas Company.

Is you are in need of a watch, Murphy 52 years old yesterday. Thasteen Watthe Jeweler can fit you in one. Prices kins of the same place was 51 years old. very low. A lady's 14k stem wind watch They celebrated the event by getting $15; warranted a good time keeper. married. Deputy Clerk Lovel issued them the license to do so.

MOTHERS should remember, when a physician cannot be procured, that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral promptly relieves the

A MIDSUMMER trotting meeting will be held by the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders Association at Lexington the first week in June. Good purses will be offered each day.

IT is estimated that 4,000,000 bushels of coal will come down on this rise from Pittsburgh. There were about seventy beats with about 180 barges started in the Railroad for injuries received in a mine. past twenty four hours.

THE Grand Jury for the present term of in a verdict for the plaintiff. The first the Circuit Court is composed of John J. two suits were compromised after a Perrine, foreman; David Wood, Milton verdict of $10,000 was rendered against Bramel, John Disher, Thomas Whaley, the company in the first case. The com-Henry Norris, John J. Pollitt, Reason pany compromised both for $11,000, and Dewning, Wilson Smith, Sanford Roff, all expenses. Negligence on the part Issue Clay, Peter White, Steven Harrison of the mine boss it is claimed caused the

THE old Baptist Church at Minerva, founded by Lewis Craig in 1793, being without a Pastor for the past twenty years, has been repaired through and through, and will be rededicated on Sunday, February 18th, by Rev. R. G. Patrick of this city. Immediately after a two weeks meeting will be held by R. G. Patrick and M. B. Adams of Lewisburg.

THE Petit Jury empaneled yesterday was composed of Messes. C. C. Dobyns. Bever y Applegate, Charles Parry, W. T. Fristoe, B. G. Wheatly, W. E. Clift, W. H. Durrett, Robert Yancey, Isaac Watkins, James Maley, Wm. McNutt, Edward Hill, William Manley, Nich. Ring, T. F. Killgore, John Tarleton, Wm. Gabby, George Schwartz, John Knoveshaw, J. D. Riley, John T. Prather, David Hunter, John Dodson and Frank

OVER at Lenox, O., the Postmaster is Thomas Hayslipp, who several weeks ago was in the city with a young girl employed about his house. He claimed her to be his wife and when Officer McKellup found out different he threat THE pharmacy license of Theo. C. ened to arrest the aforesaid Postmaster. Power was renewed in the County Monday there came to the city this selfsame man, and after abusing the members of Mr. McKellup's household he started to hunt the officer. He found him and was so infatuated with him that they remained together until Judge Wadsworth gave him a fine which amounted to about $22. The charge against the Postmaster was using abusive language and being drunk.

Mitchell Chapel Meeting. Yesterday and last night there was one conversion and four additions, making to date thirty-five additions and thirty-eight ceived $1,429 50 from taxes on lands, conversions. The convicting power on > last night. There will be services each morning from 10 to 11 o'clock, and each evening at 6:30. Don't forget to pray for us.

MURDER IN MT. STERLING.

and that of Kemper against Myall & Captain J. L. Bomar Shot Dead on the Public Highway.

> Captain James L. Bomar, formerly of Munfordsville, had been a citizen of Mt. Sterling many years.

> He had become satisfied that H. Clay Turner of West Liberty had ruined his home and separated him from his wife, and he had determined to kill him, notwithstanding the interference of friends and their attempts to bring about a reconciliation.

More than once Bomar had attempted THE tobacco men of Cincinnati are to kill Turner, and each time was prehighly incensed at that part of the vented by friends.

Turner, who was making Mt. Sterling list. Mason county farmers can soon his home, and who was Circuit Court Re quiet raising tobacco and go to raising ceiver, left the city and returned to his home in West Libetty to avoid trouble, and his business in Mt. Sterling Monday THE case of the Trustees of the Dover was to make his report to the Court.

Christian Church against the Maysville Bomar heard of his arrival and eviand Big Sandy Railroad Company has dently determined to carry into execu tion his threats. and the plaintiff granted a new trial in accordance with the mandate of the He saw his man with two others, and hurriedly followed after them to the crossing of Court and Broadway, and when within about fifteen steps Bomar fired on Turner, and Thomas Blair, one of the men with Turner, fired on him, and in rapid succession fifteen shots were exchanged, and Bomar fell from a death

J. A. McKenzie was also shooting, and MRS. LOUISA T. FRY of Springdale was it is unknown who fired the fatal shot.

The proof before the Coroner's Jury was that both Clay Turner and his brother Bruce, who had appeared on the scene, shot Bomar while dying.

Bomar sent three balls over the heart THE Grand Jury yesterday reported of Turner from a 45-caliber Colt, but indictments against Lewis Irvin, mayhem; striking a book they failed to enter the Charles Dunn, forgery; Fred Willis, body. cutting with intent to kill; James Berry and William Anderson, grand larceny;

He fired one shot at Blair and broke his right arm, and missed his aim at Mc Grant Ward, taking a woman against her will for improper purposes. The first Bomar was shot eight times, five of which would have been fatal.

The four men, Clay Turner, Thomas Blair and J. A. McKenzie of Morgan, office. and Bruce Turner of Montgomery county, were all arrested and lodged in jail, where they will await an examining trial.

It is granted that Clay Turner acted in self defense, but the act of the other two Morgan men is pronounced inexcusable, and there is much feeling against them.

his friends at Munfordsville. Captain Bomar was well known to many Maysville people.

you have friends visiting you, or if you away on a visit, please drop us a note

Miss Fannie Gollenstein of Cincinnati

Mrs. T. L. Given has returned to her home at Flemingsburg after a pleasant visit in this city.

Flemingsburg Gazette.--Misses Mollie Clark and Willie Bowden went to Maysville Monday morning to visit friends.

Flemingsburg Gazette, - Miss Mary O'Mara returned to her home in Maysville last week after spending several days at the bedside of her grandmother, Mrs. Bowden in this city.

A guest at the Louisville Hotel "tipped" Gilbert White and as a consequence the recipient is now in the hospital and likely to die. Frank Ledbetter thought he should have received the tip, and as White refused to give up, he stabbed him in the head and neck. As White fell Ledbetter plunged the knife into his lungs.

MILLERSBURG LOSES.

The Hotly Contested College Case Settled by the Supreme Court.

The suit of George W. Bryan et al., the M. E. Church, South, has been decided in the Supreme Court of the United an educational institution at Millersburg, South.

Later the Board of Education of the Conference ordered its removal to Win- the United States, a circular, propoundthe audience has never been greater than be moved.

> The Kentucky Court of Appeals de-Justice Harlan stated that the Supreme published in The Independent of January lence about this question long enough Court of the United States was satisfied 11th, 1894. These twenty-nine represent Many years ago the former Rector of the that the judgment of the Court of Ap- Dioceses in every part of the United Episcopal Church, Mr. Shipman, raised be affirmed; and it was so ordered.

List of Advertised Letters.

Below is a list of letters remaining uncalled for at the Maysville Postoffice for the week ending February 6th, 1894: Marshall, Johnny Fugate, Minnie

Greelish, John Havens, Theo. Hans, Mrs. Eliza Jordan, Mrs. Mary Linsy, Flora J. Lompard, Thomas C. Louis, Bell

Marshall, Sam Nelson, John Morgan, J. N. Smith, Lizzie Walker, Mrs. Sudie Wise, Loa Yancy, J. J.

One cent due on each of above. Persons calling for these letters will clease say that they are advertised.

STORT TO THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE

THOMAS A. DAVIS, Postmaster.

Merchants, Attention!

Please read THE LEDGER'S position, under head of "Where to Deal," to be found in another column, and then have your name placed "on the list." 71141441414141414141414141414141

JOSEPH V. DORY of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a number of different remedies, but says none of them seemed to do him any good, but finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm, For tion and the state." sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

For Rent.

The comfortable residence No. 221 West Second street. Can be inspected. Possession February 1st. Apply at this

Where to Inquire.

Persons desirious of joining the A. P. the Order, will please address Box 488, to keep their children out of the Public management of our municipal affairs Maysville, Ky.

A. N. Sapp

always find a full stock of staple and children at school I would either keep fancy groceries.

CATHOLICS AND THE SCHOOL FUND.

THE ABSORBING TOPIC DISCUSSED BY PROF. J. W. McGARVEY OF LEXINGTON.

He Challenges the Romanist Authorities and the Officials of Lexington to Show Cause for the Appropriation to St. Paul's School, and Desires that the Challenge Shall be Accepted by Responsible Parties, and Not by Anony. mous Newspaper Scribblers.

administering the affairs of Govern- would conclude that my own faith must ment in this country, whether Federal, be a very tender plant. state or municipal, no discrimination for or against any religious body is lawful. Catholics have the right to agitate for the Any such discrimination is undemocratic, establishment in the public mind, and in unjust and offensive. It necessarily the legislation of the country, of their breeds contention, as all legislation that own views of public policy, it must not is partial must and should. There is and cannot be conceded that they have a is visiting ber parents on Forest avenue. no question before the public that can be right to disregard and violate existing indicated by such expressions as The laws on this subject. Every one of the Methodists and the School Fund, or The Bishops referred to above, who speak on Presbyterians and the School Fund, for this aspect of the subject, insists upon the the reason that the Methodists and the duty of abiding by the laws as they are Presbyterians have sought no discrimina- until a change can be legally effected. I tion in their own favor from the administrators of this fund; but there is a question, and a burning one, suggested by the of Covington, in whose Diocese Lexingformula, The Roman Catholics and The ton is included, as I understand. He School Fund. Why is this? Is it because anybody has proposed to deprive from this fund that is enjoyed by other of fair play and all believers in religious religious bodies? No; but it is because this religious body claims a discrimina the public indorses our views on education in its own favor that is not accorded tion. to any other. This claim, being unjust, because it is unequal, and being a move for the establishment of privileges for can citizens who have correct ideas of our American form of Government. and other dignitaries of that church in wants something official. ing these two questions: First, Whether nant public, why the City Council, elected Bryan and his associates brought suit it is the policy of this church to obtain a to make our laws, and the Mayor, elected to retain the institute at Millersburg, on division of the school fund; and second, to execute them, do still continue to viothe ground that the contributions were Whether these prelates would give coun late law by paying out of the City School made under a contract that it would not tenance to a movement in their respective Fund annually $1,200 to the support of swers were sent in by five Archbishops, eided that no such contract existed, and and twenty-four Bishops; and they are them. They have gone on in sullen sipeals was correct, and should therefore States, and they are certainly sufficient in his voice against this violation of law. they indicate, some indirectly, and others which was reported for one of our city ment of this desire; but most of them latter class, I quote from the answer of Archbishop Elder of Cincinnati: "My own opinion is that the denominational lenge. system of public education would conduce vastly more than the present system to form conscientious and law-abiding citizens, and to establish virtue among our people, the necessary foundation of true prosperity. Whether our people can be brought to see this, and whether tion, enacted for the very purpose of preit is advisable to make efforts for this end, are questions I have not considered. As a representative of the other class I quote the answer of Bishop Durier of lated, with a view to preventing any pos-Louisiana: "First, it is positively the sible misinterpretation: sim-say the policy, if you will-of our church to obtain a division of the school a fund, as she is satisfied both that she has right to it and she can prove her right. Sec duce to the public good. It must be constand on Market street, where you will by coming in contact with my neighbors' them out of the school or give up trying ond, heartily would I give countenance to a movement in my Diocese with such an object in view, as it is my honest convicfor religious instruction, but for the secu-ligion is taught in it." Bishop Messmer favor a movement to exempt the suppor-common school tax under such conditions as would be satisfactory to the denomina-

Educational Herald, (Lexington.)-In | to hold them to my own faith. I think 1

But while it must be conceded that the quote for a special reason which will appear farther on the words of Bishop Maes

"We shall continue to pay for our own the Roman Catholics of the same benefit schools until we have convinced all lovers truth that our position is correct; until

In view of all these facts I have a right to demand of the Roman Catholic authorities of our city of Lexington why, in viothis church which must give it an advan- lation of law and in violation of tage over others, is offensive to all Ameri- the will of their ecclesiastical superiors, they continue, as they have done for many years, to accept a division What is the discrimination referred to? of the Public School Fund for the support It is that Roman Catholics shall either of their parochial school? If it is the be exempt from paying the school tax, or highly respected Priest of this parish who that a full share of the school fund shall is responsible, I think he owes it to his be turned over to them for the support of fellow citizens to speak in answer to this Trustees, &c., vs. the Board of Education their own church schools, called paro demand. He owes it to the reputation of of the Kentucky Annual Conference of chial schools. No other church sets up his church. If it is not he, but some such a claim; and I may safely say that no Board of Trustees who is responsible. other church would accept either of these then a similar answer is due from them. privileges if it were tendered. If there No official answer has ever been given, I Some years ago subscriptions were were any doubt that this is the claim of think, since this unlawful appropriation made to a fund for the establishment of the Roman Catholic Church, it would be was first made. It is time that we had removed by a recent expression of its one. The public will not be satisfied to be under the control of the Kentucky clergy on this question. The enterpris- with responses to this call by irresponsi-Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, ing Editor of The Independent, New ble or anonymous newspaper scribblers, York, recently sent out to the Bishops such as we have read in days past; it

I also demand, in the name of an indigdioceses having this object in view. An | the Roman Catholic parochial school. An official answer is wanted from some of number to reflect the policy of the church no official response was made. Several in the whole country. With one voice years later I did the same in a discourse most expressly, the desire for a division papers; but the only response came from of the school fund. Some of them favor unofficial and irresponsible persons. /Itis immediate agitation for the accomplish time now that the responsible parties were heard from. Let the men who have speak of such agitation as undesirable done this deed come out over their own and unpolitic under the existing state of | names and defend themselves, or by their public opinion. As an example of the continued silence acknowledge that they cannot do so. I shall be agreeably disappointed if there is a response to this chal-

> This appropriation of money for sectarian purposes has always been unlawful, because it is a violation of the Constitution of the United States; and it is now doubly unlawful, because it is a violation of a provision in our own state Constituventing such appropriations. I quote the section, and I invite public attention to the extreme care with which it was formu-

> Section 189. No portion of any fund r tux now existing, or that may be hereafter raised or levied for educational burposes, shall be appropriated to, or used by, or in aid of, any church, sectarian, or denominational school.

Do our city authorities know that there is such a clause in the Constitution of tion that the state should pay, not indeed | Kentucky? Do the authorities of the Catholic Church in Lexington know it? lar instruction in any school in which | The former are certainly not ignorant of state examiners find it competent with it. I very distinctly remember that when out minding whether religion or what re- this appropriation was first moved in the Council after the adoption of the Constiof Wisconsin says: "I have never been tution, W. W. Bruce, who was then a in favor of what is properly a division member of the Council, reminded those of the Public School Fund, I would rather present that the proposal was unconstitutional; yet they passed the action without ters of denominational schools from the hesitation.

I know very well all the excuses that have been given for this violation of law: and I know how flimsy they all are. But These utterances leave no room for if they were tenfold better than they are, doubt as to the present attitude of the they would not weigh a feather with a church in question. As American citi- man who wishes to abide by the law of zens they have an unquestioned right to the land; for no excuse can justify an ofhold these views and to contend for them | ficer of trust in deliberately violating law. in all lega ways. They have a right to A man who will do it ought not to be seek for any change in the legislation of trusted again with any office. The exthe country which they think would con- cuses referred to are not in fact the real ground for the action. This everybody ceded, too, that they have a perfect right knows, who knows anything about the Schools, and if I were a Roman Catholic The real ground is, that the managers of I would be with the rest of them in this the party in power want the votes of the particular, for if the faith of my children bad element in the Catholic Church; as-Captain Bomar's remains were sent to still continues to do business at his old was so weak that it would be destroyed pecially the political support of the loon-keepers, who, to the disgrace of the

Centinued on Fourth Page.